Dear Mamma

I will try to write a little now be for I go out with the cows this morning Uncle Charles went to winthrop last Wednesday and he bought me a suit of clothes he gave them to me for a birthday present It cost five dollars I do not know when school will begin yet has school began down there yet have they husked all the corn yet have you hauled all the pumpkins yet we have hauled are in all ready We got to load all to father uncle Charles is going back soon to day when uncle Charles comes. down next you must send my sled and skates a long I sent some candy and three apples a long with uncle Charles Misses Olsen are ~~in~~ twenty 5 cents and Mr Olsen told me to buy a pair of shoes for it and when I came back he asked me if I got a pair of shoes I told him no and then he asked me what I bought for it I told him ~~apples and candy~~ We fixed and got 20 gallons Charles was feeding all the time and I carried the bundles to him and piled the stuff away I can't think of to write so good by Albert Erwin

write soon.
